SHOOT-OUTS

Mike Wacht and Julie Lee co-hosted the Shoot-Out to the Florida Museum of Photographic Arts in Tampa. The group had a docent lead tour of the museum and also had time to shoot some of the sights around Tampa before the rain arrived. Below are a few of their shots. Visit the OCC Facebook page to see the non-cropped versions of their photos under Photos/Albums/Shootout:FMoPA.

JULY 30 @ 9:00 AM

OCC SHOOTOUT:

Saturday, July 30

Food Photography (9am-noon in the Oak Room at Marks Street Sr Center)

This will be a limited space, Members only, Shootout. Tickets will be available at the June and July OCC meetings @ $5 per person.

OCC's own, George Crudo, will co-host this Shootout on Food Photography.

George will give a presentation on Introductory Food Photography then members will rotate around the room shooting at natural light and flash stations. Each attendee will be responsible for creating a station. More information on what to bring will be emailed to ticket holders.

More about George:

George is a commercial food, real estate and architectural photographer based in Central Florida. Coming from a family of Italian immigrants George's love and passion for food and cooking began in his early teens. His love for photography also began at a very young age. When you combine the two, it's only natural that he would find a niche in food photography. George is currently represented internationally by agencies such as StockFood, Getty Images and Corbis.

His images are sold for use in cookbooks, restaurant menus, magazines and on the web. A few of his clients include Millers Ale House, Mr Green Tea Ice Cream and Sonoma Press. George also teaches an online class titled 'Food Photography Au Natural' for the Bryan Peterson School of Photography.

Member Social Media Reminder

We have two places online for members to post their photos, comments, sell their gear, buy new gear and stay in touch with the Club.

These are in addition to our website www.orlandocameraclub.com.

Facebook – our Group page is Orlando Camera Club, open for members only to post photos, sell/ buy gear and see what other members are doing. We also post club events on this Facebook Page.

Flickr – our Group is Orlando Camera Club, open for members only to post photos, blog discussions and show your work to the 110+ million Flickr members.

If you are an Orlando Camera Club member, you can join both of these sites by simply asking.

We invite you to join us on the web and show your work to the world!

SAVE THE DATE 2017 FCCC Conference

The Florida Camera Club Council will host a Conference & Trade Show on March 10, 11, and 12, 2017.

The theme for the 2017 Conference & Trade Show is “Photography: The Art and The Science.”

The conference will be held at the same venue as the highly successful 2015 Conference, the Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers. More information will be made available as our Conference Committee finalizes the list of speakers, workshops and vendors.

UPCOMING EVENTS & PHOTO OPS

OCC Meeting - August 22nd

Essential Ingredients to Taking Great Pictures'

presented by Jim Zuckerman

"I delve into what I consider to be the bottom line to making great photography."

2015 - 2016 Competition & Meeting Schedule:

July 11

Barry Kirsch

"A Photojournalists Perspective"

July 25

Open Critiques

August 8

Competition - Open

August 22

Presenter:

Jim Zuckerman

Just a reminder: BRING YOUR CAMERAS! The Marks Senior Center is open for us at 5:30, an hour before the main meeting starts. This is a perfect time to check out the library and socialize with other members. I have always been on site by 5:30 to do photo critiques, answer questions and just chat with whoever shows up.

BRING YOUR CAMERAS! I cannot emphasize this enough. One of the best ways to learn is by asking others with similar gear to yours about functions, tips etc. The club is more than the speakers and events we put on. It is all about the members and sharing information.

Annual Banquet Speaker

September 22, 2017

Banquet information will be available soon on the website.

David Hume Kennerly

David Hume Kennerly has been photographing history for four decades. Contributing Editor for Newsweek Magazine, Kennerly continues to travel the globe to produce insightful images of important historic events.

Kennerly won the Pulitzer Prize for Feature Photography in 1972 for his remarkable photographs of the Vietnam war. After the war, Kennerly returned to the United States for Time Magazine, and in mid-1973 and threw himself into the domestic battles then raging in Washington. After Richard Nixon resigned, Kennerly was on the South Lawn of the White House as the soon-to-be ex-President departed. His historic photo of Nixon's wave goodbye, taken when Kennerly was just 27 years old, is one of the dozens of his images that have helped define American photojournalism.

Nixon's successor, President Gerald Ford, asked Kennerly to serve as his White House Photographer, a role that resulted in some of the most personal political pictures of his career. During Ford's tenure, Kennerly photographed world leaders including Emperor Hirohito in Japan, Leonid Brezhnev in the USSR, Franco in Spain, Ceausescu in Romania, Marcos in the Philippines, Tito in Yugoslavia, Suharto in Indonesia, Deng Xiao Ping in the People's Republic of China, and Queen Elizabeth during the bicentennial celebration at the White House.
